

Agronomy Trainee

Locations: TBD

Full Time

Full Benefits

Competitive Wage

Are you looking for a career that allows you to get hands on experience with the opportunity to advance?

Are you looking for an opportunity to work outdoors operating equipment, utilizing agronomy technologies, and learning sales techniques through working and supporting the agronomy team?

Come join our team!

We're seeking motivated individuals who are passionate about agriculture and also enjoy operating large applying equipment. We offer on the go career advancement opportunities with excellent benefits for full-time employees!

In this role you will experience

- Handle and fill herbicide shuttles
- Handles hazardous materials including anhydrous ammonia, fill NH3 tanks
- Accurately sort customers seed orders
- Assist Agronomists with crop scouting, soil sampling, and field agronomic problem solving
- Support agronomy sales staff through technology and various duties as assigned
- Operate row crop sprayer, dry or liquid floatation equipment
- Apply accurate application to fields with or without special instructions
- Deliver product to customers in a safe and timely manner
- Assist in managing agronomy inventories at location
- Attend various required meetings and planning events
- Assists with seasonal grain operations when needed
- Assist with operational duties when needed
- Attend Agronomy Business Plan

Basic Qualifications:

- College degree in area of specialty and/or 2+ years of experience in the field or in a related area
- Class A CDL with tanker, double-triple and haz-mat endorsements or the ability to obtain (will assist obtaining CDL within 60 days)
- Commercial Applicators license with 1A, 1B, and 1C endorsements or the ability to obtain (will assist obtaining license within 60 days)
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Ability to manage multiple projects at a time and demonstrate good attention to detail
- Ability to work extended hours during peak seasons and at times be available nights and weekends.